WHY THE ISBA JOURNAL?

Indiana schools spend more than two billion dollars a year on products like yours.

Do you get your share of this market?

You CAN reach this potential market by advertising in the educational magazine read by more key school administrators, board members and educational leaders than any other publication – The Indiana School Boards Journal.

The ISBA Journal is the flagship publication of the Indiana School Boards Association and is the most economic and effective means of reaching the educational decision makers of Indiana’s public schools.

The ISBA Journal is the most widely read source of information on innovative educational practices, state and federal legislation policy and other education-related news in the state. Educational leaders reading this publication are responsible for making decisions on the allocation of local, state and federal dollars.

Your advertising is eagerly read because it provides information about materials and services that may help meet the varied educational needs for which schools spend more than two billion dollars annually.

The quarterly ISBA Journal reaches more than 3,000 superintendents, school board members, school business managers, legislators, school attorneys and the media. They are responsible citizens who often make purchasing decisions, not only for school boards, but also for private industry and professions. Get your share of the Indiana educational market by advertising in the most widely recognized educational publication in the state of Indiana.

ADVERTISING RATES

The ISBA Journal is the only magazine in Indiana targeting the entire school corporation community, it serves as the perfect place to get your message out to Indiana’s educational leaders. The ISBA Journal advertising rates are competitive and provide ideal opportunities for any sized business looking to reach the Indiana school corporation community. All ads are available in full color at no additional charge. Advertising is reserved exclusively for ISBA members and associate members.
